About DNLU

Dharmashastra National Law University, Jabalpur (M.P.) was established in the year 2018, by Madhya Pradesh Dharmashastra National Law University Act, 24 of 2018, with the object of advancing the cause of legal education and achieving excellence as a university for imparting value-based legal education to undergraduate as well as postgraduate students. DNLU is dedicated to providing high-quality legal education that prepares students to excel in the field of law and contribute to the legal profession and society at large. The university places a strong emphasis on research and scholarship. It actively supports faculty and student research initiatives, organizes seminars, conferences, and workshops, and encourages publications in reputed legal journals. DNLU also fosters an environment conducive to mooting and legal competitions, helping students develop practical legal skills and advocacy abilities. The motto of the University is 'Satyam Vada Dharmam Char' which has been enshrined in Verse eleven of the Shikhshavalli Section of the Taittiriya Upanishad. It literally means "speak the truth and conduct in accordance with dharma. At the end of the course, in the Dikshant Samaroh, the Guru shows the further path to his pupils and asks them to follow the path of truth and stick to the dharma. Dharma means rules of conduct which does not do injustice to anyone and protest injustice done to others. Our conduct must be an example for others.

About CJAR

The Dharmashastra National Law University's Centre for Criminal Justice Administration and Research (CJAR) is dedicated to the continuous study of various aspects of Criminal Law and its enforcement. In these challenging times, the Centre has shifted its focus towards addressing contemporary issues within the Criminal Justice system. Committed to fostering ongoing learning, the Centre organizes podcasts, webinars, and special lectures to engage with the current threats we face.

To enhance legal knowledge and promote a culture of research among students, the Centre seeks to bring together various stakeholders—such as members of the bar and bench, academics, policymakers, and officials. These stakeholders can engage in meaningful discussions on Criminal Law, justice policies, and related challenges through conferences, seminars, and publications.

About CLRR

The Centre for Legislative Research & Reforms (CLRR) is an institution established to undertake legislative studies and research aimed at promoting law reforms in India. Its core objective is to serve the public good by drafting laws in plain language, making them accessible and comprehensible to a diverse audience, thereby ensuring better compliance. CLRR focuses on enhancing public awareness about enacted laws and supporting the government in achieving constitutional goals of social, economic, and political justice. It strives to create a policy framework that facilitates the 'ease of law,' 'ease of living,' and 'ease of doing business,' which strengthens democratic values, the rule of law, and good governance. The Centre provides a platform for comprehensive research, advocacy, and training in legislative drafting, processes, and practices. It works with policymakers, legislators, and stakeholders to draft effective legislation that promotes transparency and facilitate citizen & entities. CLRR's advisory board includes prominent legal experts such as Dr. T.K. Vishwanathan, Dr. M.S. Sahoo, Mr. P.K. Malhotra, and Dr. V. Vijayakumar, reflecting its commitment to expertise and dedication
