ABOUT MNLU MUMBAI

Maharashtra National Law University Mumbai, established under the Maharashtra National Law University Act 2014 on 20th March 2014, is one of the premier National Law Universities in India. The Act envisaged to establish National Law University in Maharashtra to impart advanced legal education and promote society-oriented research in legal studies for the advancement of the societal life of the people in the country.

The prime goal of the University is to disseminate advanced legal knowledge and processes of law amongst the students and impart to them the skills of advocacy, legal services, and law reforms and make them aware and capable to utilize these instruments for social transformation and development. Since its inception, the University has made serious and sincere efforts to excel in the field of legal research and education.

In recent years the University has taken long strides in areas of research and has established Research Centers in the areas of Clinical Legal Education, Criminal Justice, Maritime Law; Research, Intellectual Property, Taxation Law, and Information Technology.

MNLU Mumbai has also been granted the Department for Promotion of Industries and Internal Trade (DPIIT), Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India's IPR Chair. MNLU Mumbai also established the Centre for Maritime Law and Research with the support of the Directorate General of Shipping, Government of India. The University has also undertaken several research projects.

ABOUT THE COURSE

Understanding of global economic relations requires specialized and advanced learning of trade and investment institutions, rules and principles.

This programme, seeks to provide a platform for richer theoretical, contextual, practical and multidisciplinary inquiry to understand institutional frameworks, global legal processes, policy dynamics, and contemporary challenges in the area of international trade and investment. Students will engage in an intensive study of global, regional and local economic regimes concerned with investment, their interactions and contemporary relevance through carefully selected elective courses.

At the end of this course, you'll be able to:

- Understand history and evolution of international investment law;
- Learn the objectives of international investment law and the specific rights of international investment agreements;
- Analyse the law and practice of international investment law;
- Analyse international investment practice globally;
- Understand the functioning of investment arbitration.

In order to undertake focused learning and cover the different stages in the course, the seats are limited to 30 students only.
